THE NEW ENGLAND FARMER FOR 1863.

In announcing the commencement of a New Volume of the FARMER we do not propose to make any important change in the appearance or character of our journal. The wide circulation we have obtained assures us that the FARMER already meets the wants of the agricultural community and encourages us to renewed exertions to make it fully deserving of the patronage awarded it.

The New ENGLAND FARMER is published weekly, in folio form. One entire page is occupied exclusively with articles relating to agriculture, nearly all original, and written for our columns by men of practical experience on their own farms. Our leading object is to give the results of practical operations and the knowledge drawn from them and not mere speculations or plausible theories.

The remainder of the paper contains:

A carefully prepared digest of the News of the Week, as fall and accurate as constant care can make it.

Miscellaneous Reading for the family circle, always instructive and of good moral tone, as well as enter taining.

Market Reports and Prices Current, including the best and only reliable report of the Cambridge and Brighton Cattle Markets, prepared exclusively for our columns at great expense. Editorials, Book-Notices, &c.

SCIENTIFIC AME THE BEST MECHANICAL PAPER

IN THE WORLD. SEVENTEETH YEAR.

VOLUME VI.-NEW SERIES.

A new volume of this widely circulated paper commences on the 4th of January. Every number contains sixteen pages of use ful information and from five to tenoriginal engravings of new inventions and discoveries, all of which are prepared expressly for its column. The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN is devoted to the interests of Popular Science, the Mechanic Arts, Manufactures, Inventions, Agriculture, Commerce and the Industrial Pursuits generally, and is valuable and instructive not only in the Workshop and Manufactory, but also in the Household, the Library and the Reading Room,

To the Inventor!

The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN is indispensable to every inventor, as it not only consists illustrated, descriptions of nearly all the best inventions as they come out, but each number contains an Official List of the Claims of all the Patents issued from the United States Patent Office during the week previous; thus giving a correct history of the progress of inventions in this country.—We are also receiving, every week, the best scientific journals of Great Britain, France and Germany; thus placing in our postersion all that is transpiring in mechanical science and art in these old countries. We shall continue to transfer to our columns copious extracts from these journals of whatever we may deem of interest to our readers.

Chemists, Architects, Millwrights & Farmers!

The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN win be a most useful The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN win be a most useful journal to them., All the new discoveries in the scienze of chemistry are given in its columns and the interests of the architect and carpenter are not overlooked; all the new inventions and discoveries appernaining to these pursuits being published from week to week. Estat and practical information pertaining to the interests of millwrights and millowners will be found published in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN which information they cannot possibly obtain from any other source. Subjects in which plauters and farmers are interested will be found discussed in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN; most of the improvements in agricultural implements being illustrated in its columns.
